ONE BAR, MAXIMUM VERSATILITY

MULTIPURPOSE BAR WITH CORROSION RESISTANT FINISH

The Hybrid Bar combines distinctive elements from weightlifting and powerlifting into a single, do it all multi-purpose bar for lifters and facilities where versatility is paramount. It brings together a sleeve construction designed to balance the distinct rotational needs for weightlifting and powerlifting, a shaft tailored towards foundational strength lifts — squats, deadlifts and bench press, and a distinctive new proprietary corrosion resistant surface treatment.
